INTRODUCTION

Located in the stately grounds of Jan van Riebeeck High School in the Gardens, Welgemeend is a true oasis of harmony and style in the midst of the frenetic City Bowl. The building is cloaked in a rustic atmosphere, with all the modern conveniences at your disposal.

Welgemeend, with its proud tradition and history, is a National Heritage site — but you will find no creative stagnation here. This facility embraces all visitors with a holistic spirit and energy that embody and speak of productivity and accomplishment.

SETTING

Blessed with its central location, Welgemeend offers convenient and rapid access to and from the City and its environs, spacious parking, modern catering facilities, and a gracious, welcoming work atmosphere that will please and enhance your endeavours. Welgemeend is ideal for wedding receptions, functions, conferences, wine tasting evenings and year-end festivities.

FACILITIES

The Media 24 Theatre is fully equipped for any presentation. It boasts 100 adjustable seats, lighting and a stage that is perfect for the unveiling of new ideas or products. This area may also be easily transformed into an active working forum for 40 delegates.

The Investec-Hofmeyr Salon, with its fireplace, classic ceiling beams and wooden floor, sets the right tone for any stylish conference. This unique venue, for dining or conference purposes, seats 22 guests around an imposing wooden table. This space can also be rearranged to accommodate 80 visitors, cinema-style, or as a lecture room for 30 attendees.

The Sanlam Room is sunny and intimate, adorned with old Batavian floor tiles. The yellow wood table seats 10, dining in simple luxury, for lunch or supper.
